STUDENT NURSE EXPLANATORY NOTES

1. The Adelaide Health Foundation, through the Adelaide School of Nursing and under the Charter of Tallaght University Hospital, has the responsibility of selecting students for nurse education at the Adelaide School of Nursing.

Application to the Adelaide School of Nursing is open to anyone who has applied through the Central Applications Office, has a 2019 CAO Application Number and has placed TR093 as a course choice on their CAO application.

Applicants are advised to read the Application Form carefully before completing it.

- 2 The date for receipt of the completed application form is Friday 26th April at 5.00pm.

It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure the Application Form arrives on time. Late applications are not accepted under any circumstances, including postal delays.

- 3 Based on the completed Student Nurse Application Form, the Adelaide Health Foundation will advise the Central Applications Office which applicants are eligible for an offer of a place in the Adelaide School of Nursing. Offers of places are issued by the Central Applications Office based upon the points obtained in the Leaving Certificate or other selection procedures. Offers will be based upon the expressed preferences of the applicant for particular schools of nursing as far as places are available.
- 4 Please note that a scoring system is in place and that Q1 (which seeks demonstration and understanding of the particular character of Tallaght University Hospital is a heavily weighted question.

BURSARIES

Bursaries up to an annual value of €3,000 may be awarded by the Adelaide Health Foundation to student nurses registered with Tallaght University Hospital. These means tested bursaries are awarded to provide financial support to student nurses undertaking their nursing education in Tallaght University Hospital. Bursaries are awarded on the basis of a separate, confidential Bursary Application Form available from the Adelaide Health Foundation. Personal financial information and personal details of bursary awards are strictly confidential.

If you wish to apply for a Bursary from the Adelaide Health Foundation, should you be nominated for a place in the Adelaide School of Nursing, application forms are available from our website www.adelaide.ie/bursaries from 30th September 2019

The closing date for receipt of a completed Bursary Form is - 31st October 2019. Late applications are not accepted.
